

INSTITUT
SIMONE DE BEAUVOIR
INSTITUTE

USEFUL INFORMATION

March 10, 1995

NOTE: Most items in this Bulletin are from the mail we receive on a regular basis. We simply pass this information along to you for your interest.

EVENTS, CONFERENCES, JOBS, NEWS OF INTEREST

SDEB EVENTS

March 17 at noon: Research Fellows Seminar Series Biography-Autobiography Workshop. Dr. Martha Saunders will lead a discussion on "Subjectivity and Agency: Some Feminist Thoughts" and Rae Taylor will discuss the topic "Taking Stock of Body & Earth." See Susan for readings.

March 31 at noon: Research Fellows Seminar Series Biography-Autobiography Workshop. Krystyna Starker and Gisela Chan Man Fong will lead the discussion.

Thursday, March 23 at noon: Yeshim Ternar, author of The Book & The Veil, will give a reading from her book at the Institute's lounge.

April 11 at 12:30: Research Fellows Seminar Series Biography-Autobiography Workshop. University of Swansea, Wales professor Katharine Hodgkin will give a talk on "Writing out of the Labrynth: Gender, Religion and Madness in Seventeenth-century autobiography." Everyone is invited.

Friday, April 21 at 9:30: Research Fellows Seminar Series Biography-Autobiography Workshop. Dr. Kailash Anand and Dr. Judy Whitehead will lead the last workshop of the academic year.

EVENTS

McGill Women's Union

On March 8, Jennifer Stoddard, Lawyer and Director of Investigations at the Québec Human Rights Commission, was the guest lecturer at McGill. Her lecture was on "What Have Twenty Years of Human Rights Legislation Done for Women in Québec?"

Lahey Lecture

The English Department invites you to the Lahey Lecture on Tuesday, March 14 at 20:30 at 3475 West Broadway, BR-207. Dr. Michael McKeon, professor of English Literature at Rutgers University will speak on the topic "Replacing Patrilineage: Thoughts on the Novel After its Origins." Info: 2340.

ERIC O'CONNOR Series 95

On March 7-9, an interactive event with writers, image makers and architects will discuss "The Word Made Flesh? Re-shaping Our City" at the Loyola Chapel. Call 3855 for complete information.

IREF

L'Institut de recherches et d'études féministes organise une Table-ronde "Le mythe des finances publiques et ses méfaits sur les femmes" mercredi, le 15 mars de 12h30 à 14h au Pavillon Hubert-Acquin, salle A-3025. Animatrice: Lyne Kurtzman; Participants et participantes: Georges Campeau, Francine Lalonde, Ruth Rose, et Thérèse Ste-Marie.

Lonergan Lecture

Dr. Phillip Hansen, Professor of Political Science at the University of Regina, will give a lecture on "Hannah Arendt's Political Thought," on Monday, March 20 at 20:00 at Loyola's Senate Chamber, 7141 Sherbrooke St. W., Room DL-200. Dr. Hansen is the author of Hannah Arendt: Politics, History and Citizenship.

Thursdays at Lonergan

Francia Butler, founder of the Peace Games Festival, will be the featured speaker on March 16 at 15:30 at Lonergan University College. Dr. Butler talk is titled "Alternate Education for Peace: Peace Games." The co-sponsor is the Loyola Peace Institute.

MCRTW

The McGill Centre for Research and Teaching on Women invites you to two afternoon seminar: Faculty of Music professor Dr. Maria Anna Harley will give a talk on "Queens of Tones: Polish Women Composers from Szymanowska to Kulenty" on Wednesday, March 15 at 15:30 at 3487 Peel, 2nd floor; and Staff Development Librarian Mr. Calvin

Evans will give a talk on "Women Shipowners of the Atlantic Provinces and Quebec" on Thursday, March 16 at 16:00 at 855 Sherbrooke St. W. Leacock 232 (Senate Chamber).

Joint Doctoral Colloquium Concordia/UQAM

The Department of Religion invites you to a Joint Doctoral Colloquium on April 7 from 14:30 - 17:00 at 1550 de Maisonneuve W., Room 403-2. Steven Engler will speak on "Hospitality and Idleness; Patricia Peacock will speak on "Power and Tradition in the Roman Catholic Church; and Pamela Thomson will speak on "Rock Music as a Vehicle for Spiritual Values."

CONFERENCES

The Departments of Social Work at the Jewish General and Royal Victoria Hospitals and the Miriam Home present a clinical day on Friday May 12 from 9:00 - 16:30. Dr. Judith Jordan, Director of Women's Treatment Network and professor at Harvard University will speak on "Creating Resilience: Growth in Connections a Workshop on Women's Psychotherapy." Registration information is posted on the "academic" board.

The British Council presents International Seminars in Britain a conference on "Women in the Workforce: Human Resource Development Strategies into the Next Century," June 4-10 in Edinburgh. The brochure is posted on the "academic" board.

Call for Submissions

Divers/cité invites submissions, of 250-500 words, on your experiences (political sexual, social cultural etc) living as a queer in Montreal, Quebec and in Canada. The submission deadline is March 24, 1995. Please refer to the "academic" board for full details.

JOBS

York University, Department of Political Science, two contractually limited position at lecturer or assistant professor level in International Relations, July 1, 1995. Apply before April 21.

Carleton University, Centre for Applied Language Studies, Instructor 1 in Japanese. Apply before March 31, 1995.

Carleton University, Centre for Aboriginal Education, Research and Culture, preliminary faculty position at Lecturer (without Ph.D.) or Assistant Professor (with Ph.D. or equivalent), September 1, 1995. Apply before May 15, 1995.

Carleton University, School of Journalism and Communication, tenure-track Associate or Assistant Professor, July 1, 1995. Apply before March 31, 1995.

VISITING SCHOLAR

The Bank of Montreal Visiting Scholar's Programme in Women's Studies is offering $2000 for a minimum stay of six months during 1995-96 at the University of Ottawa Women's Studies program.

NEWS OF THE INSTITUTE

Marja Ruotanen, Secretary of the Parliamentary Committee on Equality, Council of Europe spoke at the Institute Tuesday, March 7. Ms. Ruotanen addressed the topic "European Integration and Equality - Council of Europe as a Defender of Parity Democracy." This was a combined event with the Friends of Denmark. Please consult our bulletin boards for information about new books, videos, film, journals and subscriptions.

Congratulations to McGill's Margaret Gillett who has been honored by the university with the title of Professor Emerita.

Please remember: If you want to receive your fax quickly, please ask your contacts to use the Institute's fax number (514) 848-4553. The mailroom now delivers only once per day. They no longer place a fax sticker on envelopes so we have no way to check to see if you have received a fax. Use the Institute's fax number and get your faxes delivered promptly to your box.

The Concordia University Alumni Association invites you to a benefit performance of "Love & Other Games," on Tuesday, April 4 at 20:00. Tickets: $40 includes performance and reception. Reserve by calling 848-3815. (Tax receipt available.)